Recommendations for a safe Return to Worship

1. There is no obligation to come to worship. We will continue to post services online, I will continue to post short Bible Study videos, and the office will continue to receive pledges by mail.
2. Only come if you are healthy and consider staying home if you have a pre-existing condition that could be worsened by coronavirus or are anxious about being around others.
3. The choir is not obligated to sing, but is at liberty to reconvene at the discretion of the choir director and accompanist.
4. Household units are to maintain a six-foot distance between other, non-relative households.
5. Masks are encouraged for the sake of the peace of mind of others.
6. Please do not shake hands or come in physical contact with persons outside of your household, this includes myself and our musicians.
7. The offering will be collected at the front, where the plates will remain. Congregants are invited to come forward during the offertory.
8. Our sexton, Mr. Joe Barbour, will be instructed to thoroughly clean the sanctuary, especially doorknobs.

Altavista Presbyterian Church strives to show compassion to all people within our Congregation and beyond our doors just as Jesus showed compassion to all those in need.

Announcements

The sanctuary flowers this morning are given by Carolyn Lees in praise for God's faithfulness and His promise that He will always be with us.

We are in need of Sunday Participants (Lay Readers, Nursery workers, Ushers, Communion Servers) to serve in the ministry of the church for the month of June & July. Please sign-up on the bulletin board if you are available.

In light of the coronavirus pandemic the Session has decided to celebrate the Sacrament of Communion during Worship on the first Sunday of each quarter.
